

Robert G. Brinkmann
Member
Missouri Highways and Transportation Commission

Robert G. Brinkmann, P.E. was appointed to the Missouri Highways and Transportation Commission on September 8, 2017 by Governor Eric Greitens. His term expires March 1, 2023.

Brinkmann is CEO of Brinkmann Constructors, a company he founded in 1984. He has over 46 years of construction industry experience in key executive, project management, and engineering roles. Brinkmann is known throughout the construction industry as an exceptional creative thinker and problem solver. Brinkmann Constructors excels in fast-track, design/build construction, construction management and general contracting services, fulfilling new construction and renovation projects in the areas of hospitality, healthcare, senior living, industrial/distribution, multifamily, residential, office, retail, education, data centers and insurance reconstruction.

A graduate of the University of Missouri-Rolla (renamed Missouri University of Science and Technology) with a B.S. in Civil Engineering, Brinkmann received his honorary professional degree in 2001 and is a registered professional engineer in Missouri.

Brinkmann is active in many civic organizations and causes including the Junior Achievement Mississippi Valley, past Chairman of the Board of Trustees for Missouri S&T, member of the Board of Directors for the St. Louis Metropolitan Police Foundation, member of the St. Louis Police Chief's Club, member of the Academy of Civil Engineers, and "Honorary Trooper" of the Missouri State Highway Patrol.

Brinkmann and his wife, Kim, reside in St. Albans, Missouri.