Includes

- A. Clarifications.
1. Pages 59 - 70 FHWA-1273, "Required Contract Provisions Federal –Aid Construction Contracts, revised May 1, 2012". These provisions apply to the project and contractors shall apply these provisions;
  2. Pages 71 – 77 "Federal Aid Provisions", are deleted and do not apply. Contractors are not required to follow Federal Aid Provisions as prescribed under pages 71 - 77.
  3. The term often referred in the contract as "bid bond", can be considered to be the same as "payment and performance bond". Section (5) on page 6 "Bid Guaranty" refers to "Bid Bond" and is satisfied using the form on page 11, "Payment and Performance Bond".
    - All bids shall include a signed/sealed "Contract Bond" form found on pages 142 -143. Bidders may also include their surety company's standard form in addition to the "Contract Bond" form
    - Add the following definition under Section 5 "Bid Guaranty":
Definition: "contract bond", "bid bond", and/or "payment and performance bond" are used interchangeably and all have the same meaning as "payment and performance bond".
