

Projects

April 2023

Prepared by Transportation Planning
Missouri Department of Transportation

Employee Development Career Conversations

Description and Benefit

This innovation is to provide employee development sessions to all Southwest District employees, regardless of location or position. Employees are given the same access opportunities, as well as the chance to ask questions to further their understanding and growth. Employees, whether they attended or not, are welcome to message the speaker for a copy of the presentation. These presentations are free of cost and are applied as training credit hours to employees that attend.

For More Information Contact

Southwest District – Human Resources
Heather Burnett at Heather.Burnett@modot.mo.gov or 417-829-8031.

Southwest District – Human Resources
Shay Medley at Shay.Medley@modot.mo.gov or 417-895-7617.