

Civil, Architectural and Environmental Engineering

Missouri Asphalt Conference to be Held This Fall at Diamond Event Center in Rolla!

ROLLA, Mo.- Missouri University of Science and Technology will host the 65th annual Missouri Asphalt Conference December 3-4, 2024, at the Diamond Event Center in Rolla.

Conference topics will include the following: Thick-lift Pavement Performance Improvement by Utilizing Highly Modified Asphalt Binders; Life Cycle Analysis panel discussion; Using FTIR to identify contaminants in asphalt binders; Climate Challenge Update; Alternative binders for high friction surface; Pelletized Recycled Asphalt Shingles; I-70 Design-Build Project Update; Intelligent compaction for automatic amplitude adjustment; What impact is AI having on asphalt industry/design?; Latest Research Advances in Asphalt; Work zone safety. What can be done to protect workers better?; MAPA updates; and MoDOT updates.

The conference should be of interest to paving contractors, public agencies, state DOTs, consulting engineers, testing labs, asphalt producers, emulsion suppliers, and equipment technical representatives. Certificates to document approximately 10 Personal Development Hours (PDHs) will be provided.

For conference program information and to register visit <https://asphalt.mst.edu/> .

If you are interested in being a sponsor or an exhibitor, please visit <https://asphalt.mst.edu/sponsors-and-exhibitors/> or contact Dr. Heath Pickerill (573-341-7637; pickerillh@mst.edu).

Please forward this announcement to anyone who might be interested.

