The text contains guidelines and specifications for the furnishing and placing of granular backfill. It includes instructions on how to handle unsuitable materials and specifies minimum cover requirements. The document also includes tables and diagrams illustrating the layout dimensions and fill heights for different scenarios, along with notes on reinforcing steel and other construction details. There is a reference to the use of standard plans and tables for further details.