- J. As applicable, employees serving in an executive or administrative capacity shall comply with 105.454.1 (1) – (4), RSMo. In addition, pursuant to 105.454 (5) and (6) RSMo, no employee serving in an executive or administrative capacity shall:
- (1) Perform any service for consideration, during one year after termination of his or her employment, by which performance he or she attempts to influence a decision of any agency of the state, in which he or she was an employee or over which he or she had supervisory power, except that this provision shall not be construed to prohibit any person from performing such service and receiving compensation therefor, in any adversary proceeding or in the preparation or filing of any public document or to prohibit an employee of the executive department from being employed by any other department, division or agency of the executive branch of state government.
 - (2) Perform any service for any consideration for any person, firm, or corporation after termination of his or her employment in relation to any case, decision, proceeding, or application with respect to which he or she was directly concerned or in which he or she personally participated during the period of his or her service or employment.

In addition to loss of employment, failure to comply with these provisions could result in prosecution, and a finding of criminal violations which could result in misdemeanor or felony convictions.

K. Employees in the Divisions of Motor Carrier Services and Multimodal Operations (for the positions that conduct railroad administration activities) must comply with the following provisions:

- (1) In accordance with 622.120 RSMo, employees cannot be appointed to or continue employment in these divisions if they have any official relation to, own stocks or bonds in, or have any pecuniary interest in, any common carrier, railroad corporation, street railroad corporation, transportation of freight or property company, carrier, corporation or person subject to chapters 622, 387, 388, 389, 390, or 391 RSMo.
- (2) In accordance with 622.130.1 RSMo, employees are prohibited from soliciting, suggesting, requesting, or recommending, directly or indirectly, to any common carrier or other person, subject to the supervision of these divisions, the appointment of any person to any office, place, position, or employment.
- (3) In accordance with 622.130.1 RSMo, such common carrier, person, and their officers, agents and employees are also prohibited from offering or giving to any employees of these divisions any free pass, transportation, or any reduction in fare to which the public generally is not entitled or free carriage for property or any present, gift, entertainment, or gratuity of any kind.

In addition to loss of employment, failure to comply with these provisions could result in complaints filed with the Missouri Ethics Commission. Violation of these provisions by these employees could result in prosecution, and a criminal misdemeanor conviction punishable by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year, or both.

2. Employment Outside of the Missouri Department of Transportation (MoDOT)

- A. Employees working in the professional fields of engineering, law, or land surveying are prohibited from working outside the department in their professional fields. (See Right of Way Manual for outside employment restrictions applicable to all Right of Way employees.)
- B. Employees who choose to perform work outside MoDOT (self-employed, working for another employer, or volunteer work) will be held to the same performance standards for their work with MoDOT as employees who do not work outside

MoDOT.

3. Disclosure of Confidential Information

In accordance with 105.452(2) and (3) RSMo, employees shall not use or disclose confidential information obtained in the course of or by reason of their employment or official capacity in any manner for any reason for themselves, a family member, or any other person or any business with which they are associated.

 - B. May not purchase real property if within an established corridor without approval from the director, department of transportation.
6. In accordance with Executive Order 17-02 and this policy, employees must comply with the following provisions regarding the solicitation or acceptance of items:
- A. Employees of MoDOT shall not knowingly accept or solicit any item of any value for their personal use or benefit from:
 - 1) an outside person or organization for work performed as a department employee, or in connection with their official duties as a department employee; or
 - 2) a lobbyist, even if it is not for work performed as a department employee, or in connection with their official duties as a department employee. A "lobbyist" is defined as any natural person who acts for the purpose of attempting to influence any action by the executive branch of government or by any elected or appointed official, employee, department, division, agency, or board or commission thereof and in connection with such activity, meets the requirements of any one or more of the following:
 - (a) Is acting in the ordinary course of employment on behalf of or for the benefit of such person's employer; or
 - (b) Is engaged for pay or for any valuable consideration for the purpose of performing such activity; or
 - (c) Is designated to act as a lobbyist by any person, business entity, governmental entity, religious organization, nonprofit corporation, association, or other entity; or
 - (d) Makes total expenditures of fifty dollars or more during the twelve-month period beginning January first and ending December thirty-first for the benefit of one or more public officials or one or more employees of the executive branch of state government in connection with such activity.

Under Paragraph 6. A. sections (1) and (2), this prohibition includes payment in the form of cash, check, gift card or offer to pay, promise to pay, loans, extensions of credit, forgiveness of debts, advances or deposits of money, or campaign contribution for the benefit of another. This prohibition also includes food (meals), lodging, transportation, personal services, gratuities, subscriptions, memberships, trips, greens fees, sporting, entertainment, or social event tickets (or admissions).

- B. Employees of MoDOT shall not accept or solicit from an outside person or organization (except at a MoDOT sponsored or approved activity) “give away” items unless they are sample merchandise, promotional items or appreciation tokens (including light refreshments) routinely given to customers, vendor/suppliers, or to potential customers, vendors/suppliers in the ordinary course of business, provided that any such items shall not be in a form which can be readily converted to cash and, shall have a value of not more than $25. (Gift cards/certificates are prohibited regardless of value because they can be easily converted to cash.)

This prohibition includes items such as food items (does not include light refreshments), beverages, or random drawings or contest prizes at hospitality events associated with conferences, association meetings, or other industry-wide meetings.

Employees below the level of the senior management team (SMT) who are invited to attend hospitality-related events related to MoDOT business, or who are invited to speak/attend events related to MoDOT business with expenses (food, lodging and transportation) covered by the inviting entity must receive advanced approval to attend from their respective SMT member.
