

Tom Huster (KCI) and Ron Sconce (Mayor of the City of Troy) cut the ceremonial ribbon

District Engineer Kevin James welcomes attendees and speaks about the DDI project

Ribbon Cutting Held for Missouri Route 47 Diverging Diamond Interchange Project

On Tuesday, August 26, a ribbon cutting ceremony was held to celebrate the near completion of the MO 47 DDI project in Troy, MO. The event was well attended by local community members, economic development groups and law enforcement. Speakers included:

- Kevin James, Northeast District Engineer
- Tom Huster, President, KCI Construction Company
- Ron Sconce, Mayor of the City of Troy

Area Engineer Jeff Niemeyer poses with members of community groups and the Missouri State Highway Patrol

L-R: Kevin James (District Engineer), Dan Shane (HR Green), Tom Huster (President, KCI), Ron Sconce (Mayor of the City of Troy), Rich Rounds (Project Manager, KCI), Mike Baxter (Resident Engineer), and Jeff Niemeyer (Area Engineer)