3. The allowable bearing pressures are an angle of internal friction, $\phi$, for unimproved foundation ground where wall is to be used in accordance with Sec 5.8.2 and Sec 5.8.5.2A, Table 2-2. The allowable bearing pressure for improved foundation ground shall be provided in accordance with Fig 5.8.1; FHWA-NHI-10-024, Table 2-2, and Geotechnical Report.

4. General notes shown shall be reviewed/revised per project.

5. The allowable bearing pressures are an angle of internal friction, $\phi$, for unimproved foundation ground where wall is to be used in accordance with Sec 5.8.2 and Sec 5.8.5.2A, Table 2-2. The allowable bearing pressure for improved foundation ground shall be provided in accordance with Fig 5.8.1; FHWA-NHI-10-024, Table 2-2, and Geotechnical Report.

6. General notes shown shall be reviewed/revised per project.

7. The allowable bearing pressures are an angle of internal friction, $\phi$, for unimproved foundation ground where wall is to be used in accordance with Sec 5.8.2 and Sec 5.8.5.2A, Table 2-2. The allowable bearing pressure for improved foundation ground shall be provided in accordance with Fig 5.8.1; FHWA-NHI-10-024, Table 2-2, and Geotechnical Report.

8. General notes shown shall be reviewed/revised per project.

9. The allowable bearing pressures are an angle of internal friction, $\phi$, for unimproved foundation ground where wall is to be used in accordance with Sec 5.8.2 and Sec 5.8.5.2A, Table 2-2. The allowable bearing pressure for improved foundation ground shall be provided in accordance with Fig 5.8.1; FHWA-NHI-10-024, Table 2-2, and Geotechnical Report.

10. General notes shown shall be reviewed/revised per project.

11. The allowable bearing pressures are an angle of internal friction, $\phi$, for unimproved foundation ground where wall is to be used in accordance with Sec 5.8.2 and Sec 5.8.5.2A, Table 2-2. The allowable bearing pressure for improved foundation ground shall be provided in accordance with Fig 5.8.1; FHWA-NHI-10-024, Table 2-2, and Geotechnical Report.

12. General notes shown shall be reviewed/revised per project.
