

Projects

April 2025

Prepared by Transportation Planning
Missouri Department of Transportation

Snow Plowable Island Nose

Description and Benefit

The Snow Plowable Island Nose allows snowplows to ride up on top of the curb and slide off the back without any damage to the blade. Prior to this design, the typical MoDOT island noses were vertical and around six inches tall. This new design came from researching what other states such as Wisconsin, Colorado and Utah, which receive high volumes of snow are using.

For More Information Contact

St. Louis District – Construction and Materials

Alex Phinney at Alex.Phinney@modot.mo.gov or 314-624-5310.

St. Louis District – Construction and Materials

Michelle Krpan at Michelle.Krpan@modot.mo.gov or 314-453-1740.