

Handling Loss and Damage

If your goods are lost or damaged, immediately make a claim in writing or electronically to the mover. The mover has 30 days to acknowledge your claim and 90 additional days to offer a settlement. If the claim is not resolvable, you may file suit against the mover in a civil court.

Your claim is largely affected by the type of liability that you choose.